

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 74-1924.

Henry J. Emard.
Moose Point.

December 12, 1923.

-----

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Henry J. Emard, whose post office address is Anchorage, Alaska, is hereby authorized to operate his plant for the canning of salmon at Moose Point, within the Cook Inlet District of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittee may drive and operate one salmon trap on either one of the two locations fished by him in the season of 1923 in the vicinity of Moose Point, and may also operate 250 fathoms of king salmon gill nets and 250 fathoms of red salmon gill nets. Fish may also be purchased from gill-net fishermen who hold the necessary permits.

2. That the pack of red salmon shall not exceed one thousand five hundred (1,500) cases and the total pack of salmon shall not exceed three thousand (3,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.

3. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

S. B. DAVIS

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
